Circular 2-2013

5th European Scout Symposium 2013 – Draft Programme

Dear friends

Following the recent distribution of the Discussion Document – Our Future Path, (Circular 1-2013) I am pleased to send you a draft programme for the European Scout Symposium which is the next step in our preparations for our European Scout Conference in Berlin.

While there will be some refinement to this draft, we are confident that the main thrust of our work will follow the pattern outlined.

At this stage I would like to draw your attention to the micro-site on the European Scout Symposium where we will post updates on those attending, additional information and updates: <http://symposium2013.europak-online.net>.

Please remember that we hope to attract the key decision makers across the Region and our friends in Scouting Ireland are looking forward to welcoming you all to Ireland.

Please use the following link to register for this important event: <http://europak-online.net/events/symposium2013/register/>

We look forward to meeting your key decision makers in less than two month's time.

With kind regards,

David McKee
Regional Director
