invite you to join:

REfugee REsponse Seminar CPH 2015

Copenhagen – Denmark
27 – 29 November 2015

Why you should attend the REfugee REsponse Seminar:

Nearly 600,000 refugees and migrants fleeing war or seeking new lives have reached the European Union (EU) by sea. The refugee and migrant crisis is a challenge for all European countries, their civil society organisations, and their policy makers. Confronted with this situation, many National Scout Organisations (NSOs) and Associations (NSAs) as well as Civil Society Organisations, are struggling how to react to this crisis. Most of us are hesitating because we are in doubt, how best to reach out to children and young refugees and legal migrants.

To address this challenge, the Danish Guides and Scouts, with the support of the European Scout Region and Messengers of Peace, is organising a seminar, where scouts and youth associations from all over Europe can meet and share experiences, ideas and knowledge regarding appropriate responses to the refugee and migrant crisis. Participants will return home equipped with tools and concrete proposals for refugee and migrant support activities in their local communities. So sign-up and participate! Our joint efforts will make a difference and contribute to creating a better world.

The Seminar:

Friday – pep talk and setting the scene.

Saturday – workshops, ideas, and an evening of culture.

Sunday – plan of action and partnerships.
