

Invitation IC reception at Roverway 2018

Leusden, July 13th 2018

Dear friends,

In just a few weeks, thousands of Rover Scouts and volunteers from all over Europe will meet at the beach in The Hague for Roverway 2018. After their five day path, they will all reconvene for the camp stage in Zeewolde. We understand that you are interested to see the camp site and meet up with your contingent. Therefore, we have organised an IC meeting on Monday July 30th at 21:00. You are warmly welcomed to join. We invite you to arrive on Monday at a time of your convenience. You can stay at the camp site for the night, but bring your own tent.

You need to register for this reception in order to gain access to the site. Registration includes access to the site, meals on Monday, overnight stay and breakfast on Tuesday. Total costs are €65,- per person, we'll add your registration to the contingent. You can register via international@scouting.nl, please do so before the official opening of the event at July 23rd.

During the meeting, we will update you on the latest about Roverway and how we got there. But of course, there will be ample time to catch up with one another. We look forward to meeting you at the campsite in Zeewolde, and wish you a Summer full of Scouting.

Yours in Scouting and Guiding,

Wouter Zilverberg and Wendy Beenakker
International Commissioners for Scouting Nederland
